

Wanted: high school students

Do you have an opinion? Do you want to make a difference? Then we want you! The Center for Independent Living of Central PA is developing a new program. YOUTH MATTERS. It is designed for high school students who have an IEP (Individual Education Plan) or a 504 plan and are getting ready for work or college. Students will learn skills such as how to prepare for an interview, how to manage money, balance life/work/college & how to speak-up for themselves.

Who 10 high school students with an IEP or 504 plan between the ages of 14-21 who are serious about their independence & willing to actively participate in the program

Where Center for Independent Living of Central PA
207 House Avenue; Suite 107
Camp Hill, PA 17011

Why Why not? It will be fun, something different & has perks!

- Weekly dinner (i.e. subs, pizza)
- $10 Wendy's gift card
- $50 gift card of your choosing upon completion (i.e. iTunes, Amazon, Target)
- Certificate & letter of completion (beneficial when applying for college & jobs)
- Waiting area for parents/guardians with coffee and Wi-Fi

When One evening per week for 8 weeks. Starting on Tuesday, January 16, 2018

Deadline to register is January 5, 2018

For more information and/or to request an accommodation, contact
Erin Gaul Weierbach, Living Well Specialist, at egaul@cilcp.org or 717-731-1900 extension 263.

The Center for Independent Living of Central PA (CILCP) is committed to providing services, making referrals and taking employment actions without regard to age, ancestry, color, disability, national origin, race, religious, creed, sex, veteran status or any other characteristic protected by applicable federal, state, or local laws or ordinances.